P.A.G.B. Items

It is Westinghouse C.C.'s turn to show the PAGE Slides this year. They are to be shown in their clubroom at 7.30 p.m. on Monday 21st January, 1985

The ANNUAL PAGE PRINT EXHIBITION is shown at only five venues countrywide. Following our success in mounting the WCPF Exhibition in 1983, we have been asked to arrange the PAGE display this year. It will be in the Museum and Art Gallery, Bath Road from 3rd to 25th November, inclusive.

Reminder

The club is to run a "Basic Photography" course, eight Monday evenings, 10th September to 29th October, inclusive. There will be both theory and practical instruction. Fee: Club member £8.00; Non-member £10.00

Bits and Pieces

The Royal Photographic Society's 6th International Audio-Visual Festival, Assembly Rooms, Bath, 8th to 11th November. The best of audio-visual from all over the world. For more information, ask Roy Henry.

Kingswood Photo Society's Convention will be on Saturday 18th May, 1985.

W.C.P.F. dates: Council Meeting, Saturday 6th October 2.00 p.m. Paignton; and A.G.M. Saturday 9th March, 1985 at Taunton.

Our Summer Programme will be announced at the end of the Winter Session.

Club Information

The club's internal groups meet as follows:

1st Tuesday each month - Print Workshop
2nd do. do. - Committee
3rd do. do. - Audio-Visual
4th do. alternate months - Portrait.

Each group is self-regulatory, and may require a small fee to defray its expenses.

The club has some equipment available for hire. Consult Mike Buy (Equipment Officer).

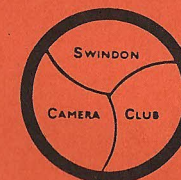

W.C.P.F. dates: Council Meeting, Saturday 5th October at Backwell C.C.; A.G.M., Saturday 16th March at Wyvern C.C., Taunton. Club members are entitled to attend, but only nominated delegates can vote.

Kingswood Photo Society's Convention will be on Saturday, 17th May, 1986. Always well worth going to.

The Royal Photographic Society's 129th Annual Print Exhibition will be on show in their premises in Milsom Street, Bath, 18th January to 10th February. It is a good collection of contemporary work, and this time especially so, as a club member has photographs in it. Naturally, admission is free for R.P.S. members.

The village of Lacock is always worth a visit for its own sake, but why not use the opportunity to see the Abbey, and the Fox Talbot Photographic Museum at the same time? (Admission is free to members of the National Trust.) Modern photography originated here, in our own Wiltshire, with Fox Talbot's experiments.
